

RPH - Review of Products in Horology

YOUR CHALLENGE

Revolutionize your analysis of watchmaking by observing the products of this global industry. The world of watchmaking is evolving rapidly, with a multitude of new products appearing every week. Innovation, often avant-garde, is revolutionizing the world of watches. How to maintain excellence ? We're here to help.

The following informations show just how much follow-up work is required.

- The ever increasing number of new products (+ 50-100 products per month). Even more during trade fairs !
- A huge number of watch configuration variants
- Technical configurations of new products
- Commercial conditions

OUR SOLUTION

Our 2024 novelty, we operate a comprehensive, reliable, accurate and cost-effective technical database of new watchmaking products, with all the business intelligence around the technologies of new models coming to market.

- One-time delivery or annual subscription
- Weekly free data updates for each brand site
- Detailed technical information for each model
- Deep dive into applications and technologies (Absolutely, e.g. automatic/manual watch..., detailed multifunction watch, electric watch... and punctually for internal and external watch elements)
- Easily cross-reference and integrate into your own research and analysis
- Complete with models' commercial conditions.
- The link, date and source of information are retained
- Optional personalized consulting services from our watch experts
